

by

RACHEL BROWNE

Sydney Morning Herald May 2, 2010

BUILDINGS being constructed under the federal government's schools stimulus program are riddled with safety hazards, from slippery tiles and toxic carpets to poisonous fumes from unflued heaters.

Read the full SMH article»